AIEA Presents Dr. Thomas Bogenschild with 2019 Timothy J. Rutenber Award

San Francisco, CA (January 22, 2019)—At its 2019 Annual Conference, the Association of International Education Administrators (AIEA) recognized Dr. Thomas Bogenschild as this year's recipient of the Timothy J. Rutenber Award.

The Timothy J. Rutenber Award was established to honor AIEA members who have rendered exceptional long-term service to the Association. It is named for the late Timothy J. Rutenber, who served as Director of the Secretariat and Treasurer of AIEA until his death in 2004. An associate member of AIEA since 1992, Rutenber was known as both an outstanding manager of day-to-day affairs and a wise steward of AIEA resources. His work on behalf of the Association epitomizes the ideal of excellence in service. In his name, honorees are recognized for the quality and duration of their work on behalf of AIEA.

Thomas Bogenschild is Executive Director for Global Education Oregon at the University of Oregon and a long-time contributor to AIEA. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors, Chair of the Policy Advisory Committee (previously the Advocacy Committee), a member of the Audit Committee, and a member and past chair of the Awards Committee.

Bogenschild's contributions to the Association's policy advisory and advocacy activities are numerous. He has played a noticeable role in educating members on how to engage with policy makers and how to amplify the cause of international education at the local, national, and international levels. Since 2013, he has regularly contributed sessions, panels and roundtables at the AIEA Annual Conference, along with several other conferences and association forums.

Bogenschild holds a PhD in anthropology, specializing in Latin American studies. He taught several courses in areas of cultural anthropology, culture and history, among others.

With deep gratitude for his manifold contributions to the organization, AIEA congratulates Thomas Bogenschild on his award.
